CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-66732-6 - Primary Colours Pupil's Book 3
Diana Hicks and Andrew Littlejohn
Excerpt
More information

1 The first question

1A Why are there no dinosaurs today?

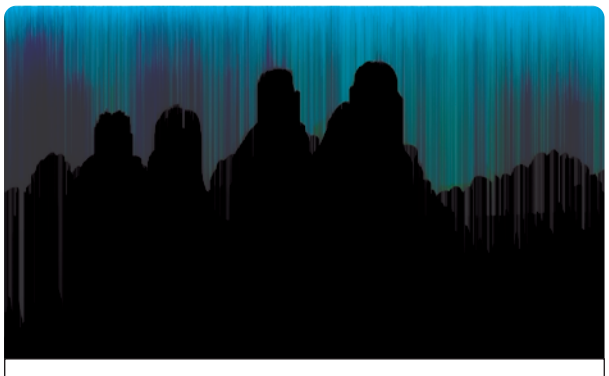
1 Read and listen. What are the children's favourite subjects?

1. 'What questions can we ask Compo?' asked Nadia. 'I don't know,' replied Alex. 'Compo, what questions can we ask you?'

2. 'Look at the screen,' replied Compo. There was a school timetable with six subjects: History, Maths, English, Science, Geography and Social Studies.

3. Compo said, 'You can ask six questions. One from each school subject. Then you can go home.' 'Home! Hooray!' everyone shouted.

4. 'What's your favourite subject at school, Alex?' asked Helen. 'History … and Maths,' replied Alex. 'History's my favourite subject too,' said Nadia.



5. 'Let's ask about History,' said Nadia. 'OK, umm … let's ask Compo about the dinosaurs,' said Alex. 'Yes!' replied Harry. 'The dinosaurs were fantastic!'

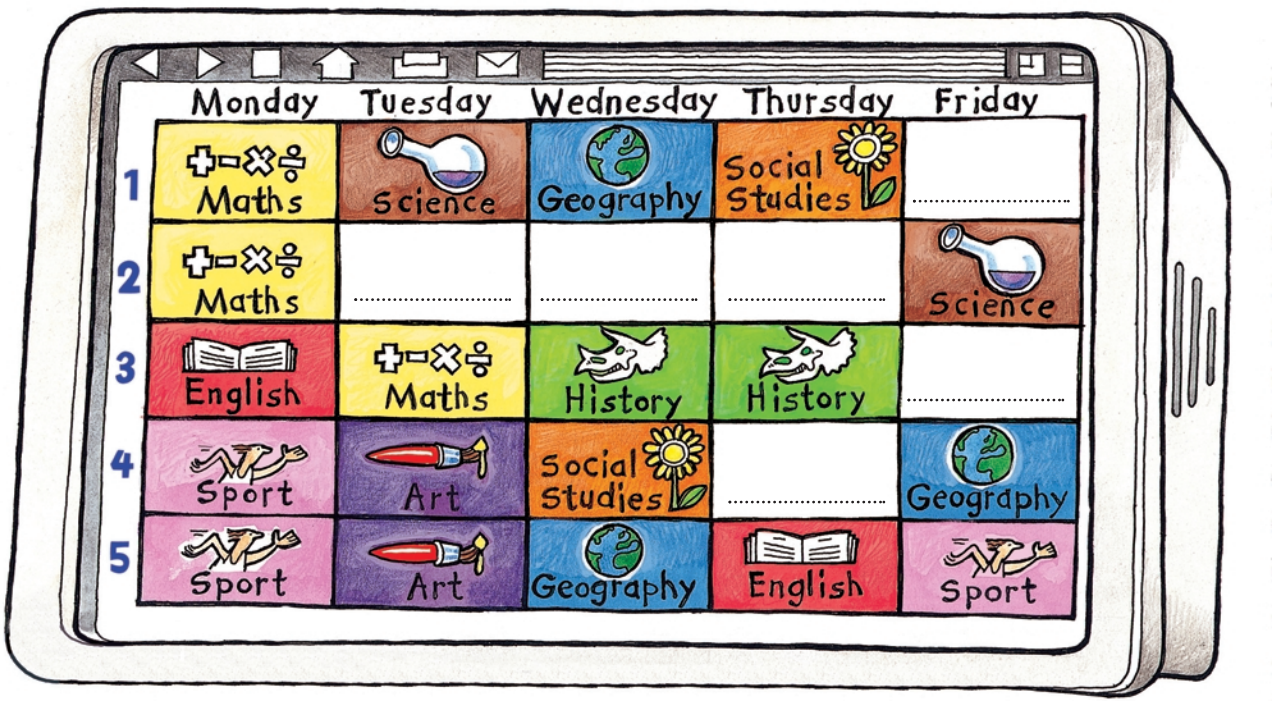
6. Nadia typed the question, 'Why are there no dinosaurs today?' 'You can travel with your power packs. Go and see the dinosaurs,' Compo replied. 'Wow!' everyone shouted.

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-66732-6 - Primary Colours Pupil's Book 3
Diana Hicks and Andrew Littlejohn
Excerpt
More information

2a Listen and write the school subject.



2b Look and answer.

1 Today is Tuesday: what was lesson 2 yesterday?

Lesson 2 was Maths.

2 Today is Wednesday: what were lessons 4 and 5 yesterday?

3 Today is Thursday: what was lesson 3 yesterday?

Lessons 4 and 5 were Art.

4 Today is Tuesday: what were lessons 4 and 5 yesterday?

5 Today is Friday: what were lessons 1 and 2 yesterday?

3 Ask your friend.

When was your last English lesson?

It was yesterday, lesson 2.

When were your last Science lessons?

They were on Tuesday, lessons 3 and 4.

last English lesson last Science lessons last Maths test last History lesson last English homework last Geography homework last Sport lessons

4 Sing a song. We're back at school!

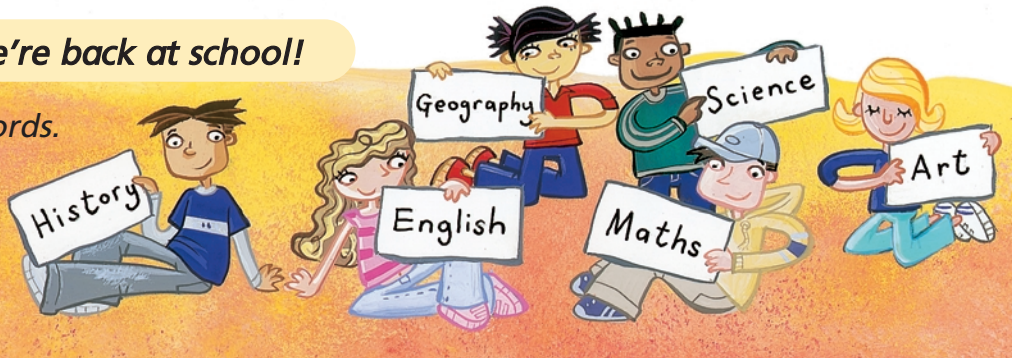
See page 62 for the words.



© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org